Raymond Gubbay presents

Ruthie Henshall Sounds of Hollywood
UK TOUR 26 October . 28 November 2010

Ruthie Henshall, singing star of West End and Broadway, has announced a special UK tour for the Autumn. Sounds Of Hollywood is a step back in time to the glamorous era of the greatest musicals, made legendary through the big screen. The show will see the Olivier award-winning actress performing live in her own incomparable style such classics as, 'There's No Business Like Show Business', 'Wouldn't It Be Lovely', 'People', 'Don't Rain on My Parade', 'Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better', 'The Man That Got Away' and 'Somewhere over the Rainbow' from Oscar-winning movies such as My Fair Lady and Funny Girl and A Star is Born.

Commenting on the tour, Ruthie said: 'I am really looking forward to performing a programme of such fantastic songs that have become defining moments in each of the movies in which they appear. Along with a live orchestra and my guest singers/dancers, it's a great opportunity to perform such unforgettable Hollywood classics.'
